READ AND REFLECT.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m. ; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.
Evenings.—Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.

Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Seats ordered by Telephone or in Person, and not called for by 7 30 o'clock on the night of performance, will then be sold to avoid loss to the Theatre.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushe s to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Electric Cars will be waiting on Richmond St. for all parts of the City, at the close each performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

When Your Coal Won't Burn!

This life is full of trials—
They strike us at each turn,
But the greatest of them all is

WHEN YOUR COAL WON'T BURN!

You may be dire afflicted,
And your troubles bravely spurn,
But you're bound to knuckle under

IF YOUR COAL WON'T BURN!

You may lend men money
Which they never will return,
But you'll swear great deal harder

IF YOUR COAL WON'T BURN!

There are dozens other troubles
In life's too brief sojourn,
But they fade away to nothing

WHEN YOUR COAL WON'T BURN!

P.S.—The moral is obvious: Buy good coal at Cameron's and be happy.

Victor Herbert and Harry B. Smith's charming comic opera, "The Wizard of the Nile," has captured Vienna, according to cable advices from the Austrian capital. It was produced there Saturday, Sept. 26th, and scored an immediate success. Inasmuch as this is the first instance on record of an American comic opera being produced in the German speaking countries, the honor is no small one. When it is further remembered that Vienna is the recognized home of comic opera, and the scene of the Strauss and Milloecker triumphs, the success of "The Wizard of the Nile" is a sincere tribute to the opera's merits.

THE SCORCHER.

"Why do they call a fast bicycle rider a scorcher, papa?"

"Because he goes a hot pace, makes pedestrians boiling mad, warms up the police and gets roasted in court. The scorcher thinks it a burning shame."

Who was the first wheelman?—Father Time. From the beginning he has gone on bicycles.

A REAL ESTATE JOKER.

An uptown real estate man had sent the facetious man to look at a house he said he wanted. The prospective tenant found it in need of extensive repairs, and went back to the agent's office.

"I didn't want a six-room house," he said solemnly.

"That isn't a six-room house," retorted the agent.

"Yes, it is."

"But I say it is not," and the agent began counting them: there's the kitchen, two bedrooms, reception room and dining-room; that's five, ain't it?

"Yes, and there's room for improvement; that's six," added the facetious man, and wanted to see something else.

A CRANIUM CURE.

My friend lay tossing, wild with pain,
Upon his restless bed;
He rolled his eyes in agony,
And pressed his aching head.

I whispered low—he quick replied:
"I never thought of that;
E'en as you say, I'll go to-day
To GRAHAM THE HATTER, for a hat.

When next I saw him he was well
And free from every pain;
The Hat had wrought a perfect cure
Where physic's aid was vain.

And when o'er his ambrosial curls
I saw his Beaver shine—
Upon my sacred oath, I swear
I wished that Hat was mine.

TOO MUCH.

Banns—You didn't know that I was once engaged to marry your wife, did you?

Danns—No; who broke the engagement?

Banns—I did.

Danns—Did, eh? (Smashes him, and pounds him within an inch of his life). There, now; if you ever play a trick like that on me again, I'll kill you the next time.

JAMIE'S OFFER.

Jamie is a bright-eyed boy who belongs to a family of seven children. He has an uncle living in the country twenty miles from his city home, and he loves to visit him.

Although he is only six, he shows great fondness for animals, and during his last visit he was much interested in a little calf there, and kept teasing his uncle to sell it to him to take home.

Finally the uncle asked: "What would you pay me for the calf?"

Jamie replied: "I haven't much money, but I could trade the baby for the calf, for we have a baby at our house most every year."

BEHIND THE TIMES.

Colonel— "Yes, that silver plate was handed down to me by my great grandmother, dear soul, who has been in heaven these sixty years."

Mrs. Parvenoo— "Bless me! How awfully behind the times they are up there, aren't they?"

A PLACE TO STAY IN.

"Kind sir," said the well-dressed stranger to a resident of the city, "is there a home for the friendless in this place?"

"Yes, there is; but you don't look as though you were forced to seek such a refuge."

"You must not judge by appearances, sir. I am a baseball umpire."

AN EFFECTIVE ONE, TOO.

Miss Kilduff—"How did Blanche manage to get a husband?"

Miss Kittish—"She utilized a matrimonial agency."

Miss Kilduff—"She surely didn't! What matrimonial agency did she utilize?"

Miss Kittish—"A hammock."

ECONOMICAL.

Bingo—"I shouldn't think you could afford to let your wife go to so many matinees."

Kingley—"Why not? It keeps her away from the dry-goods stores at least two hours and a-half."

GIVEN TO SLANG.

"Sir!"

That was the sound that he heard when he asked her for just one little kiss.

"Sir!"

There was so much emphasis to the sound that came from her pretty lips that he longed to have the ground open and swallow him up.

"Cert!"

When she finished the word he at last realized that she was only a new woman somewhat given to slang.—

A GREAT POSSIBILITY.

We have discovered a plan to get around, or rather to get over, the tall wide theatre hat. It is simple, too.

Just have the ceiling of the theatre made of huge mirrors, then at any critical moment the unhappy wretch who was quarantined behind a mass of ostrich plumes could look up for help and get it, instead of wanting to call in the other direction for aid as at present he does.

The production of these elegant instruments (which have been termed "The Artistic Standard of Canada") has been a veritable triumph for the great firm of BELL, and has not been without its effect in other quarters.
